

REMARKS

Claim 1 has been amended to change the name of the term "spinal and upper cervical impulse treatment device" to --impulse treatment head--.

5

Claims 5, 9, 10, 13, 17 and 18 have been amended to conform to the new name of the foregoing element.

Independent claim 19 recites a moveable base positioned on a fixed support etc.
10 which corresponds to vertically oriented arm the stand and arm of claim 1. An impulse treatment head also recited in claim 19, which corresponds to the same element in claim 1. The display means has been moved to dependent claim 20.

Claims 20 to 26 all depend on claim 19.

In independent claim 27, the base corresponds to the base of claim 19. The impulse treatment head of claim 27 transfers energy to a patient at a desired location, with the energy having both a linear and rotational component. The impulse treatment head of claim 19 employs a stylus to transfer the energy, which is within the scope of claim 27. Claims 28-32 20 are all dependent on claim 27.

Thus, the claims are within the scope of those originally presented and contain no new matter.

25 The claims have been amended to conform the subject application to the corresponding U.S. priority application.

30

Favourable consideration of the application herein as amended is respectfully solicited.
